Brånemark Osseointegration Center

Brånemark Osseointegration Center is situated in the Shanghai Centre, a premium location in the Nanjing Road West.

On the way to perfection,
good can always be better.

Brånemark Osseointegration Center

It is a privilege for our Shanghai operation to use the name “Brånemark Osseointegration Center” under direct authorization by Professor P-I Brånemark, “The Father of Dental Implants”.

It was the early sixties in Sweden when Professor P-I Brånemark discovered the phenomenon of “Osseointegration”. In 1965 Professor Brånemark treated the first patient with titanium dental implants. Since then, over millions of patients worldwide have received dental implants and enjoy better quality of life.

About Our Company
